August Is National Road Victim Month / Traffic Awareness Month

Remembering Road Victims, Fighting for Justice

August is recognized as National Road Victim Month — a time to honor those who have lost their lives or been seriously injured on the road, while raising awareness about traffic safety. With thousands of crashes occurring every year in Georgia, it's a sobering reminder of how quickly lives can change. At Bowen Painter, we stand with victims and families impacted by roadway tragedies, and we continue our mission to fight for accountability, safer roads, and justice for those affected.

As Labor Day weekend approaches, we see an increase in crashes on Georgia roads. In Savannah especially, where traffic and tourism meet, safe driving saves lives. Stay vigilant, buckle up, and make responsible choices.

Legal Tips: Staying Safe on the Road This Holiday Weekend

- Plan ahead– Allow extra travel time to avoid rushing.
- Never drive impaired– Arrange a sober ride if you're celebrating.
- Watch for pedestrians & cyclists– Savannah's downtown gets especially busy with tourists.
- Document everything if an accident happens– Photos, witness names, and details matter.
- Call a lawyer promptly if you're injured– Timing is critical for protecting your rights.

Meet Our Paw-a-Legal Team

Behind every strong case is a team that works hard, and sometimes, wags harder. Our Paw-a-Legal team may not argue in court, but they play a big role in the office by keeping spirits high, offering unconditional support, and reminding us to take a break when we need it most. Because justice is serious work, but a few tail wags make the process a little lighter.
